Develop new skills that will help you become a successful missionary, and witness to the people and communities you serve.

This programme is divided into two parts:

One: preparation and training (theory) in the form of four modules taught at newbold

Two: mission and service (practice) from one of the following:

- TED/BUC Irish Mission Project
- An ADRA-UK project
- An Adventist Frontier Missions project

This programme is for students who are 18+ and who do not require a visa to study in the United Kingdom because the modules are not taken to gain/and or transfer credits.

The Luncheon Club will take place on 17th July but will be closed for the whole of August. However, it will reopen on the Tuesday the 4th of September and then the 18th Sept.

Adra will not be receiving shoeboxes like the past few years. Instead there is now what's called a virtual box where you go online and put in items you want to send to a child in a basket/ box and pay for it (like you would when doing online shopping).The idea is cut down costs on shipping and packaging.
